

INBRIEF

Engineer-2022 kick starts at NIT-K in Surathkal

The 17th edition of Engineer-2022, an engineering festival, kick started at the National Institute of Technology-Karnataka (NIT-K) at Surathkal on Thursday. Chairman of New Mangalore Port Authority (NMPA) Venkata Ramana Akkaraju inaugurated the event which will go on till Sunday. The festival will feature more than 35 events with an expected footfall of 8,000 students from different parts. A variety of competitions covering gaming, business, finance, marketing, automobiles, robotics, mining, Internet of Things, racing, astronomy and civil, chemical have been scheduled. There are pro-shows which will include a bike stunt show, stand-up comedy shows by Haseeb Khan, magic show by famous illusionist Aakarsh S. Bhat and a DJ-night by DJ Mojo Jojo.