

B. Ravi takes charge as Director of NIT-K

Bhallaamudi Ravi (right) taking charge as the new Director of NIT-K at Surathkal, from Prasad Krishna, Director, NIT, Kozhikode, who was holding additional charge. SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

The Hindu Bureau MANGALURU

Bhallaamudi Ravi took charge as the new Director of the National Institute of Technology - Karnataka (NIT-K) at Surathkal on Thursday.

Prasad Krishna, Director, National Institute of Technology (NIT), Kozhikode, who was holding the additional charge as the Director of NIT-K handed over the charge to Mr. Ravi.

Prior to this appointment, Mr. Ravi was at IIT Bombay as an Institute Chair Professor of Mechanical Engineering. He is an alumni of NIT, Rourkela and had completed his Masters and PhD at IISc, Bengaluru. He is well known for his contributions in the fields of metal casting and medical devices, and headed the Desai Sethi School of Entrepreneurship, a release from the NIT-K said.