

Four-day tech fest begins at NITK Surathkal

MANGALURU, DHNS: The National Institute of Technology Karnataka (NITK)'s four-day annual tech fest, The Engineer 2024, was inaugurated at the institute's campus in Surathkal on Thursday.

Shilpa R, Managing Director, The Hutti Gold Mines Company Limited, inaugurated the event, which attracted over 25,000 visitors.

'Enchanted Cosmos'

The fest, with this year's theme, 'Enchanted Cosmos', features more than 30 events across various technical domains, including a hackathon, auto expo, gaming events, technights projects, Robocons expo, Tronix expo, drone racing, virtual sky tour, Engi talks, ACM VR expo, tech mela and many more.

The fest aims to inspire innovation, curiosity and exploration of the vast universe.

Hutti Gold Mines Company Limited Executive Director Prakash was also present. NITK Deputy Director Prof Subhash C Yaragal presided over the programme.

Dean (students welfare) Prof A C Hegde, Professor in charge of Engineer, Technical Clubs and Team Incident Dr S B Arya and others were present at the programme.